The ICC Institute of World Business Law presents:

THE ICC INSTITUTE PRIZE | 2019 edition

About the Prize

The ICC Institute of World Business Law Prize aims to contribute towards the understanding and progress of international commercial law around the world and to encourage those engaged in focused research on legal issues affecting international business.

The ICC Institute's Prize is designed to recognize excellent legal writing in the field of international commercial law, including arbitration.

The ICC Institute of World Business Law named Berk Demirkol as Laureate of the 2017 edition of the ICC Institute Prize for his thesis on "Judicial acts and investment treaty arbitration".

Application

It is open to:

- > doctoral dissertations and long essays of a minimum of 150 pages,
- > written in French or English, the two official languages of ICC,
- > on international commercial law (including arbitration).

Please note that candidates should not be older than 40 years of age on 5 April 2019, the deadline for entries.

For complete information on the entry conditions please consult the ICC Institute Prize website at: www.iccinstituteprize.org

The ICC Institute of World Business Law

The ICC Institute of World Business Law acts as a think-tank working closely with the ICC International Court of Arbitration. It is composed of 39 Council members from 19 countries, all experienced professionals or academics in international business law or international commercial arbitration, as well as more than 250 members from around the world.

Created over 35 years ago, the Institute provides research, training and information to the legal profession concerned with the development of international business law. In line with its philosophy of excellence, it proposes publications, trainings and conferences on different topics related to international business law.
