
With the Support of the
ICC INTERNATIONAL COURT OF ARBITRATION and the MIAMI INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION SOCIETY

Bryan Cave LLP and Vavrovsky Heine Marth

Welcome you to a Symposium on

Pathways into a Career in International Arbitration

Monday, March 26, 2018, 6:30 pm

Who Should Attend?

Law students and young practitioners interested in pursuing or breaking into a career in international arbitration and alternative dispute resolution.

Speakers Include

Abhinav Bhushan – Director, South Asia, ICC Arbitration & ADR, Singapore

Anne-Karin Grill – Independent, Vienna, Austria

Ben Lissner – Partner, CMS Hasche Sigle, Cologne, Germany

Jarred Pinkston – Independent, Boulder, Colorado, USA

Genevieve Poirier – Counsel, Skadden, London, UK

Ryan Reetz – Partner, Bryan Cave, Miami, Florida, USA

Aurélien Zuber – Deputy Counsel, ICC International Court of Arbitration, Paris, France

Agenda

A panel of attorneys working in the field of international arbitration will share their experiences and provide insight into their unique career paths. Amongst the topics discussed will be the day to day practice of international arbitration and advice on how new law school graduates and young practitioners can break into this exciting field. Questions will be invited and are welcomed during this interactive symposium.

Location

Vavrovsky Heine Marth

Fleischmarkt 1

1010 Vienna, Austria

Registration

RSVP to: evan.kendall@bryancave.com